BRASSINGTON, Jan	83 Comries Rd, Chartwell HAMILTON	office@psychologyconsultants.co.nz	07 855 8135	Life coaching, employee assistance, debriefing, counselling, assessments, relationships, Cognitive Behaviour Therapy.
BREEN, Tanya	15 Cattanach St, St Andrews HAMILTON www.tanyabreen.co.nz	admin@tanyabreen.co.nz	07 849 4240	I work with neurodiverse people and their family/whanau and friends, undertaking diagnostic assessments (autism, ADHD, intellectual disability etc) and providing psychological and neurodiversity-affirming therapy. My practice extends to legal settings, when people suspected or known to be neurodiverse are subject to legal orders or involved in the criminal justice system as complainants, witnesses or defendants. Committed to helping my psychology colleagues develop skills in neurodiversity, I offer training and professional supervision.
CHALK, Matty	Diversity-Matters 1 Gibraltar Cr, Parnell AUCKLAND	neurodiversitymatters2023@gmail.com drmatychalk@gmail.com	021 0844 2304	Consultant Psychologist with over 16 years of experience of working within public sector services and independently within the UK and New Zealand, leading services in relation to neurodevelopmental disorders. I am currently accepting referrals for ADHD and ASD assessments in my private clinic based in Parnell. I can offer responsive, effective, and reliable international gold standard assessments for children and adults in relation to Intellectual Disability and Autism Spectrum Disorders, and also for children and young people in relation to ADHD (6-18 years).
CLARKSON, Jo	StressBox 91e Kahikatea Dr HAMILTON www.stressbox.co.nz	jo@stressbox.co.nz	021 535 430	Youth and adults anxiety, stress and mood problems.

COLLINS, Tracey	Pathlight Psychology ONLINE www.pathlightpsychology.nz	contact@pathlightpsychology.nz	020 408 3459	I have worked with adolescents and children for 18 months at Oranga Tamariki, although now am more focused on working with adults, but still available for this age group. I am working online only at this time, so clients would need to be ok with that. I find it works well for adolescents as they are used to the technology and it provides a barrier that decreases vulnerability and therefore they often find it easier to open up. I mostly seem to work with trauma but prefer not to box myself into any specialty area. I've worked with individuals, and couples, and all ages. Mostly using CBT, ACT, compassion and strengths focused, narrative....I mix it up intuitively. I do not do ACC work.

ENGELBRECHT, Ashley	UNSURE IF AVAILABLE	ashley.psychology1@gmail.com	021 421 181	I work primarily with children and adolescents. Areas of expertise include eating disorders, mood disorders, working with families. Therapy models include CBT, FBT, ACT. I also provide supervision for psychologists.
FENG, Qiu Yue	Mandarin + English HAMILTON	qiuyuewoods@gmail.com	021 250 3646	CBT, ACT, Schema therapy, and DBT to support adult clients with inadequate interpersonal relationships & constructive communication, persistent low mood (dysthymia), depression, anxiety, (sexual) trauma-related mental health conditions, and other disturbing mental health related symptoms. Private and ACC psychology assessments for children (young persons) and adults. I speak Mandarin and understand Asian culture so I can work with clients of Asian (can speak English) and Chinese (can speak English or Mandarin) ethnicities. I provide clinical interview for psychological assessment via the Internet. For this option, you need to have a support person(s) to help you manage risk to the lowest level (online assessment sessions are not practical for children and young persons). I provide treatment sessions via the Internet after a relatively strong therapeutic alliance has already been established. This is to continue treatment sessions, reduce the cost of distant travel and to cope with the inconvenience due to the client's physical conditions, rather than to foster the client's social withdrawal. Virtual face-to-face (assessment) sessions available on weekends and after hours for non-suicidal (adult) clients.
